

Consumer Advisory – Recall Of Baby Yoplait and Yoplait Elivaé Yoghurt

The National Foods Limited in Australia has announced an immediate voluntary recall of its Yoplait yoghurt products produced from two Yoplait yoghurt production lines as a result of possible metal contamination. Following this announcement, the Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority (AVA) has advised the importers and retailers to recall all the products which may have been affected from the market immediately.

2 AVA advises the consumers who have bought the implicated products to discard the products and not consume them.

3 According to National Foods Ltd, the recall of the products is only a precautionary measure. There is no evidence at this stage that any product has been contaminated.

4 The products to be recalled in Australia are:

(a) Baby Yoplait products with Best before Dates from 4/11/2007 to 22/11/2007 as follows:
