

No Import of Pet Foods Manufactured by Menu Foods, Inc.

The Agri-Food and Veterinary Authority of Singapore (AVA) confirms that there are no imports of the affected pet food that was recalled by Menu Foods, Inc.

2. Menu Foods Inc., a manufacturer based in Canada had earlier recalled all its "cuts and gravy" style dog and cat food produced at its facility in Emporia, Kansas between December 3, 2006 and March 6, 2007. The products were packaged in cans and pouches under numerous brand names. No dry pet food was affected by this recall.

3. According to the Food and Drug Administration in the USA, there has been a small number of reported instances of cats and dogs in the United States that developed kidney failure after eating the affected product.

Issued by Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority Ministry of National Development on 20 March 2007

---

MEDIA RELEASE